

resumé

SPENCE CATES SUPERINTENDENT

37 Years in Construction
3 with Harvey

Spence began working in petrochemical construction as a rodman for one of the layout crews in the Exxon refinery in Baytown, Texas. After working in 4 chemical plants and one power plant, Spence accepted a position as a Field Engineer where he was later promoted to project Engineer, promoted again to Assistant Superintendent and then finally Superintendent. He has experience in working on a various of projects including universities, prisons, schools and government. Spence accepted a position with Harvey for the Methodist Research Institute. As the Superintendent, Spence is responsible for everyone working on-site, safety, scheduling, budget and quality control.

PROJECT EXPERIENCE

- The Methodist Hospital Research Institute - Houston, TX
- Main Renovations at Methodist - Houston, TX

PREVIOUS PROJECT EXPERIENCE

- Main Campus Library Renovation and Outboard Buildings - Houston, TX
- M.D. Anderson Clark Clinic Addition and Pedestrian Bridge - Houston, TX
- Offices for Parking and Transportation at UT Austin - Austin, TX
- DART NC-7 Light Rail System - Dallas, TX
- Parking Garage 7 UT Austin - Austin, TX
- Chester County Prison for Drug Offenders - Philadelphia, PA

AWARDS

- Recipient of the 2009 Harvey Builders Wayne Spears (Superintendent of the Year)

HARVEY